Mrs. Sena Vermamark, instead of stopping in Columbia, came on through to Newberry to accompany her step-grandmother, Mrs. Harriett Lane, to Jacksonville, Fla., today. Mrs. Vermamark will be pleasantly remembered here as the attractive and accomplished daughter of the late Dr. Jerome Bruce.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Mrs. Mary Fant has returned from Whitmore.

A marriage will never cease to be of interest in Newberry county.

It cannot be denied that there was killing frost Thursday morning.

We will let you know about the fire alarm later.

They are putting in piping preparatory to shooting the new well.

The creamery is the next thing for Newberry. Push the creamery.

Fire prevention (as far as possible) and other matters will be pushed henceforth, by order of city council.

Alice Brady will be in "The Gilded Cage" at the Opera House next Thursday.

Rev. Wilmot Holmes will conduct service at the Episcopal church next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Helen Holmes in "The Lass of the Lumberlands" at the Arcade every Thursday.

Harry D. Carey in "The Three God-fathers" will be the Tuesday's Blue-Bird feature at the Arcade.

Dot, The Miner's Daughter, or One Glass of Wine will be given at Hunter-DeWalt, Friday night, Dec. 1st.

Mr. Grover Huffman of the Lutheran Seminary of Columbia will preach at St. Pauls Lutheran church in No. 10 next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

There will be an oyster supper Friday night at the home of Mr. Clarence Duncan for the benefit of the Reagan school. The public is invited.

Home talent will break loose again Friday night at the Opera House. You can't keep Newberry home talent down.

Newberry celebrated the reelection of Wilson with a glorious program.—Greenville News. You're mighty right she did.

The Brand new 7 day old Universal films are pleasing the Arcade patrons; projected by motor driven machines on a "mirroir" screen, they are brilliant yet restful on the eyes.

Cotton was selling in Newberry yesterday at 20 cents the pound and seed at $1.00 the bushel and the end is not yet. And the price of print paper still soars.

Mr. J. J. Langford sold 325 bales of cotton on Wednesday at 19 3-4 cents round. The check was for $29,163.27. A few bales of cotton call for some money now.

There will be no preaching in Central Methodist church next Sunday, morning or evening, owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. F. T. Dibble, who is attending conference in Greenville.

The Newberry cotton mills, owing to some trouble with the generator, is running day and night this week, working part of the machinery in the day and part at night.

The Calendar society of Central church will hold its annual bazaar on the afternoon and evening of December 1st, the place to be announced later.

At the State Baptist convention in Newberry next month the Rev. E. V. Babb and other members of the committee on Devotional Services will report.

Outsiders would be astounded at the hugeness of the contest conducted through The Herald and News. It comes next to the great Democratic celebration of last Friday night.

Mr. M. C. Hallman, who has been connected with the Nobles barber shop, is now running a shop of his own over the store of J. M. Counts, higher up Main street.

The box supper announced by the Ladies' Aid society of Trinity church for the 17th has been changed to the 24th at the residence of Mr. J. R. Hendrix. The public is invited.

Of supreme beauty and sublime interest in five acts will be "The Flower of No Man's Land," next Thursday, the 23rd, at the Opera House, when the exquisite little star, Viola Dana, is to be featured.

At the Hotel Savoy the people will find Mr. George C. Swittenberg clerking. Proprietor Yonce made a good move in his selection of a clerk, as the many friends of Mr. Swittenberg will cheerfully testify.

The poem "Bob's Prayer," in the last issue of The Herald and News, had the credit dropped out, and so also had a bachelor's article on wedding presents. They were both clipped from exchanges, now unknown.

Did you ever hear Rev. Purcell sing? The title of his song at the Big Calvin Crozier Benefit tonight (Friday) is "Preacher if you want to spread joy, pray for the light to go out."

Geo. B. Cromer, Esq., chairman of the committee on Ministerial Support represented a report of such great and general interest that the Lutheran Church Visitor has secured it for publication in a later issue.

There was ice Thursday morning, with the thermometer registering 21.

The Civic league will meet with Mrs. C. A. Bowman Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A full attendance of members is urged, as the election for officers will then be held.

Brilliant address by D. D. Wallace.—Headline in Greenville News on Dr. Duncan Wallace's address at the South Carolina conference. Whenever The Herald and News reporter takes to a man you can't shake him off.

In the Baptist Courier of the 16th instant the contributions of Connie Maxwell orphanage from December 1, 1915, to November 1, 1916, contain the following items: Reedy River, $382.55. Gift of merchandise October, 1916: W. M. S., First Newberry, 1 outfit; W. M. S., Newberry, 4 shirts.

From receipts of board of foreign missions for October as published in the Lutheran Visitor we find: Grace church, Prosperity, support Mr. Wasa, $109.49; Church of the Redeemer, support native helper, $28.91; for general fund, $462.81; for chapel fund, $12.10; J. Ira Haltiwanger, treasurer, support Miss Bowers, $150; same, $50.

The circulation of The Herald and News has reached the high mark of 2,500 and is still soaring. We just can't help it if people will flock to it. We are not doing the talking, it is the people; and the people rule. Merchants want a paper that reaches out, hence The Herald and News is the medium.

It is getting nearer home and will happen here some day, as automobiles are thick and growing thicker; J. H. Milling, a wholesale grocer and prominent citizen of Rock Hill, was killed Tuesday evening two miles south of that city. He was in his car returning from his farm, when struck by a Southern train.

There is a big difference between a creamery and a crematory. It is a crematory they are building at the power house, and it is a good thing, for the purpose of burning all the trash and other things like dead horses, etc. And the creamery is a good thing the people are taking hold of. The two are being pushed in Newberry. Don't get them mixed.

The boy preacher, Wilfred G. Peden, will preach in front of the courthouse Saturday afternoon of next week at 3 o'clock. There will be an illustrated Bible show and lecture at Oakland hall the same night and preaching at the mill church the next morning. Fuller notice will be given in our next issue.

At the meeting of the Historical society tonight Dr. D. D. Wallace, professor of history and economics at Wofford college, delivered a masterful address on the subject, "Historical Background of Religion in South Carolina."—Greenville Cor. News and Courier reporting first day's meeting of the Upper South Carolina Methodist Conference.

We rejoice that our old friend "Hub" Evans of Newberry is to again be a member of the house. There are lots worse people prowling around than "Hub"—Gaffney Ledger. Yet it is to be hoped that Hub has outgrown that awful habit of greeting his friends with a mighty swat upon the back from his terrible left.—Columbia Record. You would have to sit with Hub at some vaudeville show to find out the full force of that terrible left.

Miss Akard and Miss Bowers have removed from the Japanese language school at Tokyo, where they spent one, and a half years, and after a similar period of useful service in Saga have recently moved to Hakata, where they already find more work than they can do visiting the homes of the people, teaching in the kindergartens and Sunday schools, holding mothers' meetings, teaching Bible classes, etc.—From report in Lutheran Church Visitor of convention Union synod.

The Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist congregations had good sermons both morning and evening on last Sabbath. The church around the corner has it every Sabbath.—Abbeville Medium. These congregations in Newberry, including the Lutheran and Associate Reformed Presbyterian, hear good sermons every Sunday morning and night. The same with the Episcopal, except that the sermons are not so often.

In the primary Tuesday for the nomination of a commissioner of public works and three school trustees the one candidate for each position had no opposition. The vote was as follows: Ward 1—W. A. McSwain, trustee, 22; C. E. Summer, commissioner, 23; Ward 2—W. G. Mayes, trustee, 20; Summer, 20. Ward 3, No. 1—Geo. S. Mower, trustee, 22; Summer, 22. Ward 3, No. 2—Mower, 7; Summer, 7. Ward 4—Summer, 11. Ward 5—Summer, 21. The regular election will be held at the council chamber on the second Tuesday in December.

Simon Robertson, colored, seems to like to spend his Christmas holidays on the chaingang. Policemen Stone and Cousins rounded him up for violating the whiskey law and Recorder Earhardt tried him Wednesday on three charges. First, transporting the whiskey. Second, having in his possession whiskey ordered in another's name. Third, cussing. In the two whiskey cases the prisoner got $100 or 60 days, in the cursing case $10 or 30. He is to serve the 90 days. This makes the third successive year that Simon has been to the gang, and in each instance it was for 90 days and at this season of the year.

Policeman E. Hamo Cousins had a seat in an automobile which brought results last Tuesday morning. The Summers garage had for some time been missing change from the money drawer. They put your Cousins on to the job of finding out all about it. Like the other public officers of the town and county Mr. Cousins has good eyes, ears and nose. He went to the garage very early that morning and took a comfortable seat in an automobile back in the dark and patiently waited. After awhile there was something going on. A little negro, about fourteen years old, called Mink Allen, crawled through a hole in a plank at the back of the building and proceeded to draw some more change, to the amount of 90 cents. Cousins copped him and the boy is now in jail. He had got in the habit of entering the garage and stealing small change from time to time. The amount of his thefts footed up to about $15.

Benefit of Calvin Crozier (Chapter. Through the generosity of Mr. Wells, the Calvin Crozier chapter will snare the proceeds from the Opera House Friday night, November 17th.

(With the usual good program of pictures and an added attraction by the Chapter, the house should be packed. There will be only one performance—about 8:30.

SECOND CAR CABBAGE—Just arrived. Call and get what you want while the lot lasts. G. W. Kinard, Prosperity.

THE LATEST STEPS—Don't fail to see the winners of the big cake that will be awarded Friday night.

SOCIETY.

Tuesday afternoon the "Bachelor Maids" were the guests of Misses Fannie and Lucy McCaughrin at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hunt. This was both a business and social meeting, at the end of which, delightful refreshments were served. Besides the sixteen members present were Mrs. Roland Parks and Miss Agnes Housell, of Cedartown, Ga.

Miss Ruth Harrell entertained twelve of her little schoolmates and friends at a birthday party last Saturday afternoon. The children had a merry time playing games for a short time. Then were invited to the dining room where the tables were beautiful with fall roses and large white chrysanthemums. A large and delicious birthday cake was the centerpiece with twelve hand painted paper roses holding twelve pink candies. These were the work of our artist, Fulmer Wells. The guests enjoyed ice cream and caramel cake and then the little hostess cut the birthday cake. Miss Ruth received many nice presents, and then invited the girls to go to the picture show. Those present were: Iroxene Wright, Mary McCarrie, Mary Suiter, Abbie Gannard, Gladys Suiter, Clair Siga, Bettie Harms, Carolyn Weeks, Blanche Sale, Mildred Reid, Cone Blease, Mildred Perry, Sumner Weiss, Benetta Bushardt.

NOTICE.

To motor vehicle owners and drivers:

That all the garages shall be closed on Sunday, but that any car driver absolutely needing oil or gas or repairs can get a permit from the chief of police or his representatives, which permit will allow any garage to furnish articles needed, and in this way only.

J. W. CHAPMAN,
Secretary of Council.

Death of a Little Child.

Prosperity, Nov. 16.—Muriel Schumpert Wheeler, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wheeler died Tuesday morning after a ten days illness. The little fellow was the pet of the neighborhood and his death saddened the hearts of many. The funeral services took place at the Prosperity cemetery Wednesday morning, the services being conducted by Pastor Healy of Grace church. The lovely floral offerings showed the deep sympathy expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler in their sorrow.

Prosperity throws wide open her doors and welcomes all to her city to view the wonderful exhibits at her community fair. We can only say with the Queen of Sheba, "The half has not been told."

Death of Mr. James Porter.

Mr. Jas. J. Porter died of paralysis, at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Claude Jackson, in the Mollohon mill village, on Monday afternoon and was buried in Rosemont Tuesday, service by the Rev. Baxley. Mr. Porter was 71 years old and leaves two sons and two daughters, all of mollohon.
